I was born in Washington, D.C. in 1947. I attended the New York Studio School from 1968-72, where I studied sculpture with George Spaventa, and drawing with Mercedes Matter and Nicholas Carrone. From 1972-82 I lived in Washington, D.C., where I continued with my work, taught, and exhibited occasionally. Since 1982 I have been with the Johnson Atelier, which is located in Mercerville, New Jersey.
