

Installation Proposal
Michael L. Miller

The panel I have submitted for your consideration contains several of the individual elements that are used in the wall installations that I create. Each time the work is installed, the number of individual pieces varies to accommodate the gallery space. I also take into consideration the unique lighting situations included in each exhibition space. The piece is constructed on site and all wall-mounted pieces are hung by single drywall screws.