

STEPHANIE TYISKA

719 Catharine Street
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19147
(215) 925 3774

Born: March 18, 1954. Hempstead, Texas.

CAREER
OBJECTIVE

To teach Weaving and Fabric Design with an emphasis on aesthetic, technical, and historic concerns. With a knowledge of loom and off-loom weaving techniques, printed fabric design and embellishment, I am qualified to teach all fiber related courses.

Other areas of proficiency include Three-Dimensional Design, Two-Dimensional Design and Introductory Art History courses.

EDUCATION

M.F.A. TYLER SCHOOL OF ART, TEMPLE UNIVERSITY.
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. May 1979.
Major: Weaving.
Supporting work in Fabric Design, Photography, and Art History.

B.F.A. UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN SCHOOL OF ART.
Ann Arbor, Michigan. August 1977.
Major: Weaving.
Supporting work in Fabric Design, Furniture Design, and Psychology.

RELATED EMPLOYMENT

INSTRUCTOR: Tyler School of Art, Temple University.
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Summer 1979.

Fabric design using traditional Japanese stencil printing and paste resist techniques.

INSTRUCTOR/ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE: Fleisher Art Memorial.
Philadelphia Museum of Art. 1978 - present.

Responsibilities include course design and instruction in Silk-screen techniques.

INSTRUCTOR/TECHNICIAN: The Fabric Workshop.
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Summer 1978.

All responsibilities related to production fabric printing. Instructed apprentices in designing and printing yardage.

ASSISTANT RESIDENT DIRECTOR: University of Michigan.
Ann Arbor, Michigan. September 1973 - May 1977.

Liason between students and university housing offices. Responsibilities included counseling and administrative duties.